

By Reginald Rose

Based on his Emmy Award-winning teleplay "Twelve Angry Men"

Directed by Jim Luongo

The Unitarian Church in Westport
10 Lyons Plains Road
$20 suggested donation

Friday, March 18 – 8 PM

Saturday, March 19 – 8 PM

Sunday, March 20 – 3 PM

"The story is as bare bones as its jury room setting. Originally a teleplay that was subsequently adapted for the silver screen and later the stage, "Twelve Angry Men" takes us directly into the world of jury deliberation. Twelve strangers are set to decide the fate of a young delinquent accused of the manslaughter of his abusive father. It seems like an open and shut case, but one juror - Juror Eight, to be exact - believes there is enough reasonable doubt to acquit, much to the frustration of his colleagues. As the story unfolds, so do the details of the crime and the biases of the jurors, and by its close, we learn that nothing is really what it seems." Broadway World – Olena Ripnick