PODCAST “We are the stories we tell ourselves” by Shekhar Kapur

QUOTE: If you don't know the kind of person I am and I don't know the kind of person you are a pattern that others made may prevail in the world and following the wrong god home we may miss our star.

~ William Stafford, from his poem: "A Ritual to Read to Each Other,"

BOOK: The World Is Made of Stories by David R. Loy, a Buddhist writer

In this dynamic and utterly novel presentation, David Loy explores the fascinating proposition that the stories we tell — about what is and is not possible, about ourselves, about right and wrong, life and death, about the world and everything in it — become the very building blocks of our experience and of reality itself. Loy uses an intriguing mixture of quotations from familiar and less-familiar sources and brief stand-alone micro-essays, engaging the reader in challenging and illuminating dialogue. ... Reminiscent of Zen koans and works of sophisticated poetry, this book will reward both a casual read and deep reflection.
