

West Hartford Youth Overnight “Con”
In Collaboration with The Unitarian Church in Westport and
The Unitarian Society of Hartford
February 24-25
10am-10am

All high-school aged youth are invited to this 24-hour event at our church in West Hartford! With games and opportunities to get to know each other, midnight candlelight worship, dawn yoga, tie-dying (bring a shirt or something!), and a special afternoon workshop presented by our friends from the Sexual Assault Crisis Service, a program of the YWCA in New Britain. Sexual Harrassment & Sexting is an interactive workshop designed for high-school students, and provides up-to-date information on this all-too-relevant topic. We’ve cooperated with SACS before, and are excited to share this with you now! Sunday morning we’ll close a little before 9am, and invite everyone to stay for the intergenerational service at 10.

We will provide: Lunch & Dinner on Saturday and Breakfast on Sunday, some adult supervision, a whole bunch of fun stuff to do, and even a commemorative mug!

You should bring: An adult for every 5 youth, the attached permission slip with a $20 fee, a sleeping bag and pillow, whatever toiletries you need for an overnight, comfortable clothes, any special talent or skill you’d be willing to share.

You should not bring: Drugs, alcohol, weapons of any kind, bad attitudes.

Contact Dan Bouchard at the Universalist Church with any questions, and please RSVP to dbouchard@westhartforduu.org so we can get an idea of numbers. Our Youth Group is pumped to host an event like this, and we’re looking forward to connecting with other UU Youth in our area!
