

WHAT TO DONATE

CLEAN, WORKING, UNBROKEN, ITEMS ONLY

If it's missing parts, is broken, is too disgusting for you to use or wear, then don't bring it. Test appliances, and provide batteries, if needed. Put small parts in Ziploc bags. Attach notes re original prices, explanations or 'WORKS WELL'. We reserve the right to say 'no thanks'.

- Antiques (will be appraised)
- Appliances - small & working!
- Artwork
- Baby equipment
- Beds and bedding *
- Bikes
- Boats, kayaks, canoes
- Books - cookbooks
- Clothing- clean, folded or on hangers. Men - Women - Kids
- Craft supplies
- Dishes
- DVDs & CDs
- Electronics IF you can guarantee it works.
- Furniture - small;
- Games & toys, unbroken
- Gardening supplies
- Glassware
- Handbags, belts, scarves
- Household items of all kinds
- Jewelry
- Kitchen equipment, any kind
- Lamps
- Linens
- Musical instruments
- Office supplies
- Records
- Rugs
- Shoes
- Sports equipment. No skis
- Tools - a big seller

Upholstered OK if CLEAN

*Mattresses will be given away and must be super clean. No oversized wooden frames, please.

 Better Jewelry will be saved for the December Boutique

THANKS, BUT NO THANKS TO:

Stuffed animals ~ Oversized furniture ~ Skis
Outdated, mismatched, odds & ends of Electronics*
~ Ceiling fans or other hardwired lighting ~

Baby car seats or other items that don't meet safety standards
~Drapes and rods ~ Shades and blinds ~ magazines ~ text books

- Most town transfer stations now take electronics for recycling
- Staples Office Supplies or Best Buy accept any electronic appliances