Topic: SANCTUARY

UU Principal: We work for a peaceful, fair, and free world.

We can ask “What does it mean to be a parent of Sanctuary” or “What does it mean to be a family of Sanctuary?” Reflect with those in your family.

From Argo Film's "The Urban Elephant" comes the touching story of Shirley and her keeper, Solomon James. Trapped in a man-made world, Shirley's life at the Louisiana Purchase Zoo was a lonely one, bereft of the company of other elephants. Follow Shirley and Solomon through a life of captivity to release in the Tennessee Elephant Sanctuary. This two-time Emmy Award winning film was produced for PBS's Nature Series.

- The Many Adventures of Winnie the Pooh (FOR YOUNGER CHILDREN)
<https://www.common sense media.org/movie-reviews/the-many-adventures-of-winnie-the-pooh> “THE MANY ADVENTURES OF WINNIE THE POOH brings to life several chapters of A.A. Milne's The House at Pooh Corner that were turned into Disney shorts in the 1960s and '70s. The film opens with a scene from Christopher Robin's non-animated bedroom [a sanctuary!] where we see the stuffed animals that come alive in the animated tales. As the narrator introduces a book, viewers slip into the story as the characters come alive on the page. -Common Sense Media-
