

Theme: Let the Mystery be
Topic: Mystery

UU Source #1: A sense of wonder in all that we do

Message: What does it mean to be a family of mystery?

- “Let the Mystery Be” - invites our children into the practice of connecting to gratitude and appreciation.
- May your holiday season be rich with the mystery of creative chaos that always seems to magically work itself out. And as you help our children sit back and wonder at the many gifts all around us, may you to find yourself visited by those same moments of gratitude and awe.

Sun Bread By Elisa Kleven

Activity ideas for home:

Find a simple recipe and make two different types of holiday bread. Remind the children there are many different kinds of bread and many different kinds of families and celebrations. Have them help you with the making and the baking. Talk with the children about how busy he month of December is with different faith celebrations.
