

Individuals who have any of the following symptoms or have had of the following exposures should not attend in-person religious services.

1. Anyone who is feeling ill for any reason.
2. Anyone with fever (>100.4 F).
3. If you or a family member have any of the following symptoms suggestive of covid-19:
 - a. New loss of taste or sense of smell
 - b. Congestion, runny nose, sore throat
 - c. Coughing
 - d. Muscle or body aches
 - e. Unusual fatigue
 - f. Nausea, vomiting, diarrhea
 - g. Fever or chills
 - h. Shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
4. Any child with any of the above symptoms and/or:
 - a. Abdominal pain
 - b. Neck Pain
 - c. Rash
 - d. Bloodshot eyes
5. Anyone who has attended (a) a convention, meeting, or rally/protest indoors (> 100 people), (b) a private indoor gathering in a residence (> 25 people) or (c) an outdoors meeting, rally (>150 people) where social distancing and/or facemask use rules were not strictly adhered to, should not attend a religious service in-person for at least 2 weeks following the abovementioned event.
6. Anyone who has been in contact with a person known to be infected with the coronavirus should not attend for at least 2 weeks after known exposure.
7. Anyone who has travelled by airplane, internationally or from any state in the US, during the two weeks prior to the Service, should not attend.
8. Anyone who has arrived in Connecticut from a state with a high rate of positive tests for Covid-19 as listed in the State of Connecticut Travel Advisory (<https://portal.ct.gov/Coronavirus/travel>) should not attend the Service until after their 2-week quarantine period is completed.

Updated: October 27, 2020