

Racial Justice Resources #5 Winter, 2022

The Unitarian Church in Westport

View: Been Seen: The Photography of Zora J. Murff

Online - Feb. 7 at 6:30 p.m.

<https://www.nypl.org/events/programs/2022/02/07/been-seen-photography-zora-j-murff>

The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture presents a retrospective of photographer Zora J. Murff's influential and award-winning body of work.

Attend: NCCJ Community Perspectives: What Are Social Justice Theories?

Online - Feb. 16 at 12:00 p.m.

<https://www.nccj.org/event/nccj-community-perspectives-what-are-social-justice-theories.html>

In this educational workshop, attendees will learn about major social justice theories, including Critical Race Theory—what is it and what it is not.

Explore: Reclaiming Black Spaces—A Virtual Tour with the Tenement Museum

Online - Feb. 16 at 7:00 p.m.

<https://www.darienlibrary.org/event/5504>

As part of the Tenement Museum's ongoing mission to uncover stories that have been historically excluded from the larger narrative of the United States, this program highlights the many ways Black and African Americans shaped the development of New York's Lower East Side.

For Kids & Families: Celebrate Black History!

Online - Feb. 17 at 4:00 p.m.

<https://danburylibrary.evanced.info/signup/EventDetails?EventId=37311&backTo=Calendar&startDate=2022/02/17>

Children in grades K to 5 are invited to a virtual celebration of Black Americans. The program will include a reading of poems from The 1619 Project: Born on the Water; a viewing of "Martin's Big Words," based on the award-winning book; and a presentation by John Cherry of the NAACP. Kids will also create a craft honoring influential African Americans. Registration is required.

Nonprofit Spotlight: Project Flashlight

<https://flashlight.acluct.org/>

Project Flashlight, a new initiative of ACLU CT, "shines a light on the ways Connecticut's more than 100 police agencies operate in the shadows," with the goal of using data and information to push state and local governments to redirect resources from policing to public health and safety.