The Unitarian Universalist Congregation in Westport (“UU Westport”) invites all to join us for our “GOOD TROUBLE” Celebration Tuesday, February 28, 6:30 to 8:30 at 10 Lyons Plains Rd, Westport, CT. All are welcome; there is free parking, and we are wheelchair accessible. RSVP required at janetluongo.wellness@gmail.com.

“Make some noise, get into good trouble, necessary trouble.”

- Late civil rights icon, John Lewis.

National manager of UU the Vote JaZahn Hicks says, “Rep. John Lewis’ words call on us to find moral courage to build a democracy where all of us can thrive...to be uncomfortable...engage our communities, and face injustice with prophetic imagination and action.” Be hopeful and make noise!

UU Westport made lots of noise! On February 28, we are celebrating receiving a national UUA (uuu.org) award designating us as a “Good Trouble Congregation.” Less than 2 % of the 1000+ UU congregations in America earned this honor and UUA is putting on a show and we’re going to be a part of it!

Come mingle with volunteers and democracy partners, have some finger foods, snacks and desserts, and join a table. From 7-8 pm, enjoy the national ZOOM celebration - with inspiration, music and motivation. Our keynote speaker is Tiffany Flowers. She is Campaign Director of Frontline, which works for Election Defenders and Electoral Justice.

Finally, we’ll honor our own UU Westport UU the Vote volunteers. Some wrote postcards at the home of Darcy Hicks, who will speak to us about why she started the group, DefenDemocracy of CT. We welcome activists from our neighboring community as well as those who want to take more action.

Join us in making GOOD TROUBLE!
